The World Diversity Leadership Summit-Europe is an international high level diversity conference focusing on leveraging European and global diversity and inclusion by 2020. WDLSEU is ideally suitable for both advanced and new diversity and human resources professionals. This two days experience will allow participants the opportunity to discuss complex challenges and opportunities related to European and international diversity management. Topic areas range from recruiting and managing diversity and inclusion in a demographically changing environment, through managing age diversity, working parents, CSR to organisational connectivity by 2020. Participants will leave with new bench-marking business and diversity tools, including those focusing on bottom-line impact. Over 200 diversity European and global executives, leaders, and experts are expected in Vienna in March 2010.
